

The Grand National Festival – Aintree Racecourse

Papillion Restaurant Package - LAST TABLE –LADIES DAY

Aintree Racecourse is known to millions worldwide as the home of the John Smith's Grand National – The World's Greatest Steeplechase. Our luxurious prime location restaurant is on the 3rd Floor of the Earl of Derby Stand in the spectacular Papillion VIP restaurant. The restaurant has a private balcony with a birds-eye view over the entire Grand National Course, as well as live entertainment!

LADIES DAY

VIP Papillion Package

Known as the biggest social and style day out in the North West, Ladies' Day will return to Aintree on Friday 13th April and promises to be more stylish than ever. Raceday fashions provide a spectacle of colour with some amazing prizes up for grabs for Aintree's most stylish racegoers. With make-up sampling, goody bag giveaways and fashion shows all happening, it's the ultimate raceday style experience.

The day's on-course action includes the £175,000 John Smith's Melling Steeple Chase, won in spectacular style in 2011 by the Paul Nicholls-trained Master Minded and the John Smith's Topham Chase over the Grand National course.
